Customer Reviews

I should have gotten the complete set rather than the Hornbook. As it is so heavily edited, this book has very limited usefulness.

Remedies was my favorite class in law school, because it gives you a more practical idea of what the law is useful for. I found this Hornbook incredibly helpful for the class.

The book is O.K. but it's a little out dated. Laws have greatly changed since this latest edition. It waists pages by explaining useless and ancient history of law and torts. Provides a broad outline of torts with sometimes poor english and sentence structure. It's a necessary read but some tort case outcomes leave you out in no-where unless you look the case up and read it for yourself. Nothing exciting.
