Customer Reviews

The story concerns the eponymous Carmen, a beautiful gypsy lady with a fiery temper. Not careful with her love, she is responsible for the downfall of many men. She woos the corporal Don Jos ©, leading him to mutiny against his superior. His infatuation causes him to join a band of smugglers, of which Carmen is a member. He is happy with Carmen for a brief period, but is driven to madness when she turns from him to the bullfighter Escamillo....

Although I love this opera, I was under the impression that this book would be in English, but it was in French. It did not specify that it was in the original language, and appeared to say that it would be in English so I was disappointed.
