Truth Of My Songs: Poems Of The Trobairitz

Synopsis

Truth of My Songs is a translation of poems written by the women troubadours, known as trobairitz, whose poems disappeared after the Albigensian crusade of 1129. Together, the poems present a profound argumentâ "for and againstâ "the notion of finâ TM amor, the pure or fine notion of love, invented by their male counterparts. Tragic, raucous, vulgar, silly, and strange, the poems of the trobairitz prove that womenâ TMs history has been recorded since the first woman raised her voice and lifted a pen.
