Customer Reviews

A wonderful book of poems by Australian artist Marilyn Peck. I've been a fan of her work since I was given The Waste Land Suite, which contains reproductions of 48 of her paintings inspired by the poems of T. S. Eliot. Not confined to exploring her creativity through paintings, Marilyn expresses herself in The Girl In the River through 31 delightful poems. An added bonus for her art fans? Ten of the twelve illustrations in this book are artworks by the author that have inspired - or have been inspired by - her poems.
